The Raising of Lazarus

As we continue the scrutiny for our Brothers and Sisters, (catechumens) who will be receiving their sacraments during Easter, this Sunday we are reflecting on this profound passage from Saint John's Gospel that have a baptismal perspective. Previous Sundays, we have reflected on Jesus promising living water to the Samaritan woman; and Jesus, the Light of the world, giving sight to the man born blind. All these passages from Saint John have a baptismal significance. The raising of Lazarus from the dead points to our rising in faith to a new and eternal life through Baptism. There are three important symbolisms we find here such as water, light, and life! They have meaning for all of us as we strive, with the help of God's grace, to live our baptismal promises.

The words of Jesus to Lazarus' sister Martha, give us comfort and hope especially those who have lost a loved one: I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. The truth of Jesus' proclamation that He is the resurrection and the life would become even more apparent on Easter Sunday morning with His own resurrection, the final victory over evil and death.

The raising of Lazarus was a sign of Christ's power over death. He is the messiah; He is "the life" who pulls down that wall of death. It shows us Christ's lordship over death. Christ gives us a trustworthy hope of life beyond death. We need Martha's faith amid the doubts and fears we might encounter in the face of tragedies, especially in the face of death. When Jesus asked Martha if she believed He was the resurrection and the life, she replied: Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.

While the Gospel of the raising of Lazarus shows Jesus' power over physical death, it also points to Jesus' power over spiritual death. In this vein, Saint Augustine saw the raising of Lazarus as a symbol of the sacrament of Penance. Just as burial clothes bound Lazarus, sin binds human beings. Jesus told the people to unbind the burial bands from Lazarus as he came forth from the tomb. So, the Lord, through His priests, unbinds sinners from the chains of sin, in the sacrament of Penance. We truly experience new life, a kind of second Baptism, through this sacrament of God's mercy. This is the point of our Lenten penance and sacrifices: interior conversion.

It is our mission as Christians to proclaim that Jesus is the resurrection and the life. It means we live as people of hope and that we spread that hope to others. Saint Peter wrote: Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope (1 Peter 3:15). Of course, that hope must first be real and personal, based on our encounter with Christ and His mercy. This is the witness that evangelizes, the witness of joyful and hope-filled disciples of Jesus, those who believe that Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life, that gives us the virtue of Hope!

As we approach Holy Week, let us pray that our own faith may be strengthened, so that we, like Martha, can place all our hope in Him who is the resurrection and the life! In our moments of trial and difficulty, may He strengthen our faith and hope!

God Bless,
Fr. Theo

Peace Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen.
